BEYOND THE PLAYGROUND: OUTDOOR EDUCATION AND INDIGENOUS WAYS OF KNOWING

Wednesday, October 1st, 2025 • 7:00-9:00PM • Coquitlam CCRR • 1130C Austin Avenue • Fee: $10.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

In this 2-hour, in person workshop, participants will explore the importance of outdoor education as it relates to child development, health and well-being. We will investigate how to create a meaningful and authentic relationship with place, and brainstorm ways for young children to gain a deeper connection to the land. This session will uncover strategies to support children's success in learning and consider the educator's vital role in providing time, materials, and space for children to investigate their natural world. The presenter has been given permission by multiple Indigenous researchers and community members to share Indigenous ways of knowing and will do so with deep respect for its origins and cultural significance.

Presenter: Amy Flanigan

Amy Flanigan is faculty in Langara College's Early Childhood Education program and an alum of the same. With 20+ years in ECE, she brings deep experience and passion to her teaching. Amy holds a BA in ECCE from Capilano University and an MEd from UBC. Her interests include Indigenous ways of knowing, and exploring gender and power discourse in education.

NETWORKING: BENEFITS OF FELT STORIES MAKE & TAKE

Thursday, October 2nd, 2025 • 6:30-9:00PM • Burnaby CCRR • 4460 Beresford Street • Fee: $5.00 • Suitable for child care providers and child care workforce.

This networking offers an opportunity to get comfortable telling stories to children as well as ways to become more creative in presenting stories and concepts at circle time. We will look at incorporating felt stories in the classroom so children have an opportunity to explore and play with them enhancing their own imagination and creativity. Felt stories can be used to provide learning opportunities such as counting, learning colours, letter and number recognition and so much more. Each participant will also choose a felt story kit and make a story to take home.

Presenter: Christine Kopp

Christine Kopp is an Early Childhood Educator with over 21 years experience working, teaching and mentoring in ECE classrooms. She is currently still working in the field and has also started her own business sharing the love of storytelling through felt boards. She challenges teachers to see felt stories as a fun encouraging hands on activity for more than just circle time.

Light refreshments will be provided.

A two hour professional development certificate will be issued.

FAMILY CHILD CARE ADMINISTRATION: 16 HOUR COURSE

Tuesdays, October 7th, 14th, 21st & 28th, 2025 • 9:30AM-12:30PM • Online • Fee: $20.00 • Suitable for child care providers and child care workforce.

This 16-hour course utilizes interactive sessions to guide participants through best practices in family child care, alongside fundamental business practices such as projecting a family child care budget, maintaining records, organizing expenses, and preparing for tax season. We will identify and review the necessary policies and procedures in family child care. As a final project, participants will either create or update their own Parent Package, which includes their center's policies, contracts, daily schedule, programming, and more. Participants are required to have a basic understanding of word processing to complete the Parent Package document.

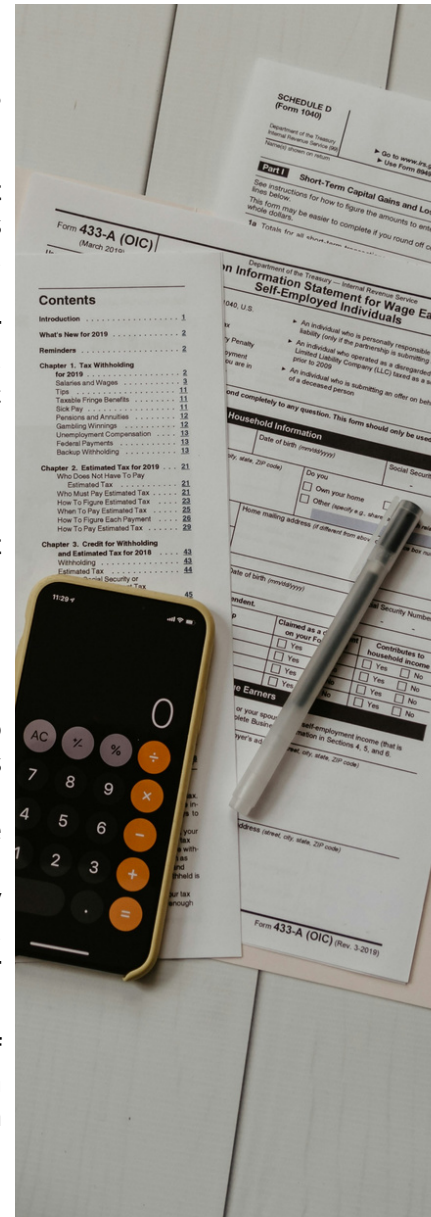

Objectives:

- Familiarize yourself with CCRR best practices in family child care.
- Identify and review policies and procedures, and create or update a Parent Package that must be approved before the final session.
- Explore basic business practices.
- Gain basic knowledge about the Affordable Child Care Benefit.
- Learn effective strategies for building positive relationships with families.

This course is designed for registered or licensed family child care providers who wish to enhance their administrative skills or review their Parent Package. It is intended for participants who have completed the Responsible Adult course and want to advance their careers in child care by starting their own family child care business. Please note that this 16-hour course (which includes both class time and independent learning) does not qualify participants to become a licensed family child care provider or to open a family child care business. For further information, please contact your local Child Care Resource and Referral Office (CCRR) or Licensing Office.

Participants are additionally required to: be at least 19 years old at the time of registration, demonstrate Grade 8 proficiency in both written and spoken English (or an equivalent level) to engage actively in class, and attend all sessions to earn a certificate of completion.

Presenter: YMCA CCRR Consultant

DR. JOAN DURRANT

WHAT IS 'DISCIPLINE' THROUGH THE LENS OF CHILDREN'S RIGHTS?

WEBINAR

SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 22ND, 2025
9:30 AM – 12:45 PM*
ONLINE WEBINAR
*INCLUDES A 15-MINUTE BREAK.
COST: $5.00!

We often hear the phrase, “Children need discipline!”—but what does that really mean? The word “discipline” can carry many interpretations, from physical punishment like spanking to emotional punishment like time-out. In this webinar, Dr. Joan Durrant will explore discipline through various lenses to help us understand why the term is so often misunderstood and controversial. She will offer a framework for thinking about discipline in the childcare context—one that centres children’s rights to protection, dignity, and participation in their learning. Drawing on her extensive background in developmental psychology and her work as the creator of Positive Discipline in Everyday Parenting, Dr. Durrant brings valuable insight into respectful, rights-based approaches to guiding children’s behaviour.

BEFORE THE WORDS: SUPPORTING COMMUNICATION AND CONNECTION IN THE PREVERBAL YEARS

Thursday, December 11th, 2025 • 7:00-9:00PM • Online • Fee: $10.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

What does communication look like before language? This session helps educators understand and support the earliest forms of expression—crying, body movements, gestures, and shared attention. We'll explore how to respond respectfully, encourage turn-taking, and foster rich emotional and social exchanges even before children begin speaking.

Core themes:

- Preverbal communication
- Responsive interactions
- Language-rich environments
- Emotion coaching for infants and toddlers

Presenter: Monica Chan

Monica Chan brings her diverse experience as a parent, educator, coach, and storyteller to her workshops, where she connects deeply with those who care for children. Her focus is on bridging the gap between research and real-world application, making complex developmental science accessible and actionable.

CREATIVE DANCE EXPERIENCES FOR PRESCHOOL CHILDREN

Saturday, December 13th, 2025 • 9:30AM-2:00PM (30 min. lunch break) • Coquitlam CCRR • 1130C Austin Avenue • Fee: $20.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

Children love to dance and this workshop will take you through age-appropriate movement elements and show you how to engage children in dance experiences. The first half of the workshop gets participants comfortable dancing themselves, while understanding through experiential learning that presenting dance and dancing with children does not have to be intimidating- in fact, it's loads of fun!

Objectives:

- to become comfortable dancing with children and stretch comfort zones in relation to the idea of incorporating and presenting dance activities to children
- to learn the basic structure of a dance class within various settings
- to understand, through experiential learning, how dance as an expressive medium, has the power to engage the body, mind, and heart.

Presenter: Lorraine White-Wilkinson

Lorraine White-Wilkinson holds an MA in Arts Education and has over 30 years of experience teaching dance to preschoolers. She is dedicated to inspiring young children through creative movement and helps educators bring joyful, imaginative dance experiences into early learning settings with confidence and enthusiasm.

UKULELE FUN! (3 DAY COURSE)

Coquitlam CCRR • 1130C Austin Avenue • Fee: $35.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

Want to add more music to your circle times but intimidated by the guitar and sick of egg shakers? Introducing the versatile, easy-to-learn and adorable ukulele! Children will be charmed by this fun instrument that you can't help but smile when you listen to it. At this 6-hour hands-on course, you will learn how to strum, basic chords to some fabulous children's songs. No musical experience required! The class will include a booklet of songs and chords to practice at home.

Free Ukulele to Take Home with You!

Presenter: Corene Brown

Corene Brown is the Programs & Youth Services Coordinator at the Port Moody Public Library and is an enthusiastic amateur ukulele player. She taught herself ukulele through a combination of hubris (how hard can this be?) and watching YouTube videos. She plays ukulele at story times, classroom visits and does a mean version of the Gilmore Girls theme song.

BEING WITH AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE (ASL) (3 DAY COURSE)

Burnaby CCRR • 4460 Beresford Street • Fee: $30.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

An Imaginative Education approach to learning ASL and Introducing it to young children. This workshop series will introduce participants to ASL through the lenses of the theories of Imaginative Education and Unswaddling Pedagogy. Children learn through embodiment, their senses, emotions, rhythms, curiosity, wonder, metaphors, etc. Dr. Annabella Cant, an ASL learner herself, will introduce the language through "cognitive tools" that are very familiar to educators. She will engage the participants holistically, through song, movement, play, emotion, humour, and imagination. The participants will learn important facts about inclusion, about how to stay respectful toward the deaf community, and how to approach this new language in an ethical way.

The workshop series will also approach all the principles of the BC Early Learning Framework. So, let us enter together this wonderful world of ASL!

- Session 1: introduction, theory, history of ASL, communication to parents about learning ASL, alphabet, and numbers.
- Session 2: frequently used words with young children, sentence and question formation.
- Session 3: ASL through songs, stories, transitions, and games.

Presenter: Dr. Annabella Cant

Dr. Annabella Cant is a professor in Early Childhood Education at Capilano University. In 2022 Annabella was nominated for the BCTLC West Coast Teaching Excellence award. She has previously received the 2019 Teaching Excellence Award from Capilano University. Annabella has been practicing ECCE since 1994; in 1999 she started opening her own childcare centres in Europe (her schools were dedicated to children with very diverse backgrounds and abilities).
